DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Newly submitted claim 28 is directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons. Group I, claims 6-8, 22-27 are drawn to an injection device, classified in class 604, subclass 198, and Group II, claim 28 is drawn to a cartridge for use in an injection device, classified in class 604, subclass 200. While the preamble of the two groups are different, the body of the claims in the two groups recite many same or similar elements, such as a hollow housing, a plunger and septum plunger. However, Group I and II are unrelated and patentably distinct inventions. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are not capable of use together (both have a hollow housing, plunger and septum plunger), and they have different designs, modes of operation and effects because Group I requires a hollow sleeve connected to the housing and arranged to cover a needle of the device and to retract into the housing, whereas Group II does not. Group II requires a bypass between the septum plunger and septum cap whereas Group I does not.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required

because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification (subclasses), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 28 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-8 and 22-27 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not teach or suggest a device comprising a housing configured to contain a liquid and a solid drug composition separate from each other and wherein the liquid and solid composition are combined in the housing prior to injection, a plunger and septum plunger inside the housing, and a hollow sleeve arranged to cover the needle prior to injection, and to retract into the housing after injection upon contact with the septum plunger as the septum plunger is displaced by the plunger.

Applicant's response

Applicant has amended the claims as suggested by Examiner in the previous Office action. Claims 6-8 and 22-27 are now indicated as allowable. However claims 6-8 and 22-27 cannot proceed to allowance because claim 28 is still pending.
